

Biography

EDWARD MCNICHOLAS

Partner

Ropes & Gray LLP

EDWARD MCNICHOLAS is co-leader of Ropes & Gray LLP's data, privacy & cybersecurity practice. His practice focuses on clients facing complex information technology, constitutional and privacy issues. Recognized by the National Law Journal as a "Cybersecurity & Data Privacy Trailblazer," Ed has significant experience with litigation and counseling matters involving cybersecurity, privacy and data protection, cloud computing, the Internet of Things, online advertising, and big data/data science. He is the lead editor and co-author of the leading cybersecurity legal treatise, "Cybersecurity: A Practical Guide to the Law of Cyber Risk." Chambers USA and Chambers Global have highly ranked Ed as a "Leading Lawyer" for privacy for more than a decade. Ed previously served as associate counsel to President Clinton, where he advised senior White House staff regarding various independent counsel, congressional and grand jury investigations. Ed received his J.D. from Harvard Law School, where he was an editor of the Harvard Law Review. He received his A.B. from Princeton University, and served as a clerk for the Honorable Paul Niemeyer at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit.

