CO-CHAIR

REGINA SAM PENTI

Partner

Ropes & Gray LLP

REGINA SAM PENTI is a partner in the intellectual property transactions, data, and emerging companies practice groups at Ropes & Gray LLP, with offices in Boston and London. She is also a co-founder and co-chair of the International IP Summit. She leads strategic transactions such as mergers, acquisitions, asset purchases and bet-the-company collaborations that are driven by intellectual property, technology and data. She is also an experienced legal strategist who helps clients grow, defend, commercialize and manage critical IP and technology assets. An MIT-trained engineer and computer scientist, Regina has deep experience in areas including artificial intelligence, robotics, software, health care, fintech and medical technology.

With dual-qualification as a U.S. lawyer and solicitor of England & Wales, Regina is frequently invited to comment on global intellectual property and technology law issues. She is a guest lecturer on patent law at the MIT Sloan School of Business. She was co-chair of the Internet and Technology Law Committee of the Boston Bar Association from 2019–2021.

Regina also co-chairs Ropes & Gray's global Diversity Committee and maintains a pro bono practice focused on gender and immigration matters.
