

Biography

JIM DEGRAW

General Counsel, Secretary & Chief Administrative Officer
Volta Inc.

JIM DEGRAW is part of the team at Volta, a company operating a unique electric-vehicle charging network. Volta's charging stations are designed and deployed in a manner that is intended to benefit consumers, brands, site hosts and strategic partners' interests while helping to build out the infrastructure needed to fuel the future. Volta recently became a publicly traded company through a business combination with a special purpose acquisition vehicle. Jim's responsibilities for the company include heading up the legal team, acting as corporate secretary and playing an active role in policy matters. Jim is also a member of the board of the Ignatian Solidarity Network and, prior to joining Volta, was a partner at Ropes & Gray LLP.