

Biography

BEIBEI SUN

Senior Corporate Counsel, Global Licensing and Business Development
Sanofi

BEIBEI SUN is currently a senior corporate counsel of global licensing and business development at Sanofi, where she counsels the Sanofi Genzyme business unit for strategic licensing and collaboration transactions as well as venture capital investments. Prior to joining Sanofi, Beibei was an associate attorney of the strategic transactions group at Ropes & Gray, focusing her practice on IP and corporate transactions in the life sciences industry. Prior to joining Ropes & Gray, Beibei interned with the Patent Cooperation Treaty (PCT) Division of World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) in Geneva, and was a leading member of the legal team at Creative Commons China Mainland. Beibei is currently a board member of the Global Healthcare Innovation Alliance Accelerator (GHIAA), a think tank institute based in Durham, which aims to facilitate global health care consortium formation and find legal solutions to confront public health crises. Beibei received her J.D. from Duke University School of Law, and her master's in IP law and bachelor's of law in China. Beibei is admitted to the bars in Massachusetts and New York, and is also qualified to practice law in China.