

Biography

KEN MORTENSEN

Data Protection Officer

InterSystems

www.kenmortensen.com

AN ATTORNEY AND ENGINEER, Ken Mortensen is a privacy/security professional with more than 20 years of legal and 30 years of IT experience. Ken is the data protection officer at InterSystems in Cambridge. Previously, in the Bush administration, he was associate deputy AG for privacy and civil liberties at the U.S. Department of Justice and the Department of Homeland Security's first deputy CPO. He was also CPO for CVS Health and Boston Scientific, had his own law firm, was the Pennsylvania AG's special counsel for cyber, taught at Villanova Law, and began as an electrical engineer. He served on IAPP's board and is the privacy expert on the TSA's Aviation Security Advisory Committee.