

Biography

DIANE M. RING

*Interim Dean, Professor
Boston College Law School*

DIANE M. RING is interim dean at Boston College Law School. She served as associate dean of faculty from 2018 – 2021. She is also a professor of law and the Dr. Thomas F. Carney Distinguished Scholar at Boston College Law School. Her research primarily focuses on international taxation, corporate taxation and ethical issues in tax practice. Her recent work addresses issues including information exchange, tax leaks, international tax relations, the sharing economy and human equity transactions, and ethics in international tax. Professor Ring was a consultant for the U.N.'s 2014 project on tax base protection for developing countries and the U.N.'s 2013 project on treaty administration for developing countries. She was the U.S. national reporter for the 2012 IFA Conference on the Debt Equity Conundrum, and the U.S. National Reporter for the 2004 IFA Conference on Double Nontaxation. She served as chair or vice chair for the Tax Section Committee of Teaching Taxation of the American Bar Association from 2013 – 2020.

Professor Ring is co-author of three case books covering corporate, international and ethical issues in tax, respectively. She clerked for Judge Jon O. Newman of the Second Circuit Court of Appeals.