Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement: Further Implementation of Trafficking in Persons Policy (DFARS Case 2013–D007)

AGENCY: Defense Acquisition Regulations System, Department of Defense (DoD).

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: DoD is issuing a final rule amending the Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement (DFARS) to further implement DoD trafficking in persons policy, and to supplement Governmentwide changes proposed in connection with Executive Order 13627, to improve awareness, compliance, and enforcement.

DATES: Effective January 29, 2015.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Amy Williams, telephone 571–372–6106.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The United States Government’s longstanding policy prohibiting human trafficking in Federal supply chains is codified in Governmentwide acquisition regulations at FAR subpart 22.17. DoD is strengthening its policies and practices to ensure that no taxpayer resources are used to support such egregious labor violations. DoD has identified a number of important supplementary actions to help eradicate trafficking in its own supply chain. The DFARS coverage ensures that employees of DoD contractors are fully aware of their labor rights and that they have a means of reporting suspected labor violations directly to the DoD Inspector General’s office. These added protections will further improve stability, productivity, and certainty in the contingency operations that DoD supports, and they will ensure that DoD contractors do not benefit from the use of coerced labor.

DoD published a proposed rule in the Federal Register at 78 FR 59325 on September 26, 2013, to further implement DoD trafficking in persons policies to improve awareness, compliance, and enforcement. Two respondents submitted public comments in response to the proposed rule.

II. Discussion and Analysis

DoD reviewed the public comments in the development of the final rule. A discussion of the comments follows:

A. Summary of Significant Changes From the Proposed Rule

There were no changes from the proposed rule as a result of public comments. One minor editorial change was made to the title of the new provision 252.222–7007, Representation Regarding Combating Trafficking in Persons, to use the word “regarding” in lieu of “with regard to.”

B. Analysis of Public Comments

Comment: Both respondents commended the drafters of the proposed rule. One respondent expressed appreciation that the drafters listened to stakeholder organizations that offered comments at the public meeting on ending trafficking in persons earlier in 2013. The other respondent stated that the proposed rule goes a significant way towards implementing the requirements of Executive Order 13627 and title XVII of the National Defense Authorization Act for FY 2013. The respondents did not suggest any changes to the DFARS proposed rule.

Response: Noted.

III. Executive Orders 12866 and 13563

Executive Orders (E.O.s) 12866 and 13563 direct agencies to assess all costs and benefits of available regulatory alternatives and, if regulation is necessary, to select regulatory approaches that maximize net benefits (including potential economic, environmental, public health and safety effects, distributive impacts, and equity). E.O. 13563 emphasizes the importance of quantifying both costs and benefits, of reducing costs, of harmonizing rules, and of promoting flexibility. This is a significant regulatory action and, therefore, was subject to review under section 6(b) of E.O. 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review, dated September 30, 1993. This rule is not a major rule under 5 U.S.C. 804.

IV. Regulatory Flexibility Act

A final regulatory flexibility analysis has been prepared consistent with the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601, et seq., and is summarized as follows:

This rule amends the Defense Federal Acquisition Regulations Supplement (DFARS) to improve awareness, compliance, and enforcement of DoD policies on combating trafficking in persons. This rule requires the display of hotline posters on combating trafficking in persons and whistleblower protection for contracts and subcontracts, not for the acquisition of commercial items, that exceed $5 million (for performance both inside and outside the United States), display of a contractor employee bill of rights when the contract includes the DFARS clause 252.225–7040, Contractor Personnel Supporting U.S. Armed Forces Deployed Outside the United States, and a representation regarding hiring policies that is required in all DoD solicitations and contracts that exceed the simplified acquisition threshold.

There were no public comments in response to the Initial Regulatory Flexibility Analysis.

About 58,000 small entities do business with DoD. The mandatory disclosure requirements and the hotline poster requirements only apply to small business concerns with DoD contracts or subcontracts, not for the acquisition of commercial items, that exceed $5 million. The representation regarding hiring practices applies to all small business concerns (and all other businesses) that respond to solicitations with an estimated value exceeding the simplified acquisition threshold. The requirement to display the contractor employee bill of rights only applies to contracts with contractor personnel supporting U.S. Armed Forces deployed outside the United States in contingency operations, humanitarian or peacekeeping operations, or other military operations or exercises, when designated by the combatant commander. None of these requirements is expected to impose a significant economic burden on small business concerns.

There are no information collection requirements in this rule. This rule adopts dollar thresholds wherever possible and limits certain requirements to contracts where contractor personnel support U.S. Armed Forces deployed outside the United States. There were no additional alternatives identified that could further decrease the impact on small entities.

V. Paperwork Reduction Act

The rule does not contain any information collection requirements that require the approval of the Office of Management and Budget under the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. chapter 35).
