

MICHAEL DIEHL
Senior Attorney
U.S. Patent And Trademark Office

MICHEAL DIEHL has served as a Senior Attorney at the Office of Policy and International Affairs (OPIA) at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office since 2019. As a member of OPIA's China Team, he focuses on standard essential patents, trade secrets and China's intellectual property commitments under the Economic and Trade Agreement between the United States and China. Mike has co-authored the USPTO publications Patenting activity by companies developing 5G technologies (Feb. 2022) and Trademarks and patents in China: The impact of non-market factors on filing trends and IP systems (Jan. 2021).

Earlier, Mike negotiated international trade matters with China and other countries while serving as Senior Director for Innovation and Intellectual Property in the Office of the United States Trade Representative. Previously, he represented the United States International Trade Commission in appeals of Section 337 determinations.
