

RAJESH AGGARWAL

Professor of Finance

D'Amore-Mckim School of Business,
Northeastern University

PROFESSOR AGGARWAL is currently Professor of Finance at the D'Amore-McKim School of Business at Northeastern University. He was previously on the faculty at the University of Minnesota, University of Virginia, University of Michigan, Oxford University and Dartmouth College. He received his B.A. in Economics from Yale University and his Ph.D. in Business Economics (Finance) from Harvard University. Professor Aggarwal's current research interests cover all aspects of corporate finance, including corporate governance, the economics of organizations, optimal capital structure, bankruptcy, executive compensation, initial public offerings, mergers and acquisitions, boards of directors, hedge fund performance evaluation, securities fraud, and stock market manipulation. His research has been published in top finance and economics journals, such as the Journal of Political Economy, the Journal of Finance, and the Journal of Financial Economics. His research has been cited over 8,000 times, according to Google Scholar. He advises on securities litigation matters, and he currently serves as Chair of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Medica Health Plans.