

ANNE-RAPHAËLLE AUBRY

Associate

Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, LLP

ANNE-RAPHAËLLE AUBRY is an associate in Quinn Emanuel's Boston office, focusing on intellectual property litigation. Anne represents startups and established companies in patent and trade secret disputes involving a variety of technologies and industries, including heart valve replacements, vascular access devices, artificial intelligence, optical transport networks, hybrid transportation networks and automated driver assist systems. Anne also has significant experience in patent prosecution, diligence and opinion work. Prior to joining Quinn Emanuel, Anne was a patent agent and associate at Ropes & Gray and White & Case, where she prosecuted international patent portfolios and performed freedom-to-operate analyses for technologies such as heart pumps, stents and spinal cord simulators. Based on her experience coordinating cross-border strategies for both prosecution and litigation, Anne is uniquely positioned to represent companies in US and UPC litigations. She is a member of the Paris bar and a registered UPC representative, and is currently part of the team advising Amgen in its UPC actions against Sanofi.
