As a US lawyer and English solicitor, CHARLES (CHUCK) LARSEN provides clients sophisticated multijurisdictional counsel in IP portfolio strategy, transactions and disputes, with a particular emphasis in bioengineering and medical technology. He is licensed to practice before the US Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO), the European Patent Office (EPO), US District Court, and the courts of England and Wales. He conducts IP due diligence in the US and Europe with an emphasis on transatlantic patent validity, infringement and freedom to operate studies. He actively supports clients in US and European patent disputes including Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB) proceedings, reexams, EPO oppositions and litigation. Chuck also has extensive experience in transactional IP matters, including transaction structuring and portfolio due diligence for investments and acquisitions, and negotiating collaboration license agreements, joint ventures and other strategic commercial contracts involving key IP assets. Chuck has advised on a wide range of technology in engineering and life sciences, including bioengineering and medical technology, pharmaceuticals, drug delivery, machine learning, signal processing, combustion and energy.
