Once your participation has been verified, a New York, California, Virginia, Texas or Illinois CLE Certificate of Attendance will be issued to you. Attorneys should retain a copy of this affirmation along with the CLE Certificate of Attendance for 4 years.

Experienced New York attorneys (attorneys who have been admitted to the New York Bar for more than two years) may earn CLE credit through nontraditional formats. Newly admitted New York attorneys may receive Professional Practice and Ethics CLE credit through teleconference, webconference, live classroom, or fully interactive video conference.

In New York, one hour of CLE credit consists of at least 50 minutes of instruction and credit hours must be calculated in no less than 25-minute (.5-hour) increments. In California and Illinois, one hour of CLE credit consists of at least 60 minutes of instruction and credit hours must be calculated in no less than 15-minute (.25-hour) increments.
